Lark Tasmanian Single Cask Whisky Hobart 18

Lark Single Malt Whisky is proudly unique in character and style. Entirely made by hand, Lark consistently distills some of the worlds most prized Whiskies, with no more than 100 litres at a time. Distilled in locally crafted copper-pot stills, this exceptional classic cask is the flagship product of the Lark Distillery. This Whisky is best described as a complex mix of vanilla-caramel-maple syrup with some slightly spicy, floral notes and gentle hints of fresh pepper on a flavourful lingering finish. Excellent neat or with a drop or two of filtered water.

Sullivan's Cove "American Oak" Malt Whisky Hobart 34

Before the French Oak came into its own, Sullivan's Cove American Oak was the Australian champion whisky. This is rich, creamy, and full bodied with a long sweet lingering finish.

What we consider some of the best Whisky from Scotland

Edradour 10 y.o. Single Malt 40% Scotland 11

Edradour, world renowned as the smallest traditional distillery in Scotland and arguably the most unique. Dating back to 1825, Edradour, stands alone as the last stronghold of handmade single malt whisky from a farm distillery still in production today. This has rich, fruit cake flavours and a sweetness that emerges from the combination of sherry wood and the small stills of the old farm distillery.

Laphroaig 15 y.o. Limited Edition Single Malt 43% Scotland 18

Located on the east coast of Scotland, Laphroaig distillery has been an integral part of Islay Island community for 200 years. This Limited Edition is in celebration of Laphroaig's 200th anniversary. With the scent of grapefruit and fresh mint on the nose, a touch of water releases salted caramel notes and its signature Islay peaty smoke underlying sweet orchard fruit and wet tobacco. It has a pleasant prolonged finish, a certain gem to savour.

Talisker 18 y.o. Single Malt 45.8% Scotland 21

Talisker is the only Single Malt Whisky made on the Isle of Skye, one of the most remote, rugged, yet beautiful landscapes in Scotland. This 18 year old is mature, mild-mannered and sweet to begin with, with less smoke and chilli pepper than younger expressions. Flavours and aromas build up in the glass to reveal a truly energetic dram that put on display the true beauty and character of malts from the of the Isle of Skye.
