Sullivan's Cove "American Oak" Single Cask Malt Whisky Hobart 34

2018 World Whiskies Awards, World's Best Single Cask Single Malt and Best Australian Single Cask Single Malt. The first Australian whisky to achieve liquid gold status in Jim Murray's Whisky Bible. A strong malt backbone and flavours of vanilla, caramel, stone fruit, white flowers and powerful oak.

What we consider some of the best Whisky from Scotland

Edradour 10 y.o. Single Malt 40% Scotland 11

Edradour, world renowned smallest traditional distillery in Scotland and arguably the most unique. Dating back to 1825, Edradour, stands alone as the last stronghold of handmade single malt whisky from a farm distillery. This has rich, fruit cake flavours and a sweetness that emerges from the combination of sherry wood and the small stills of the old farm distillery.

Laphroaig 15 y.o. Limited Edition Single Malt 43% Scotland 18

Located on the east coast of Scotland, Laphroaig distillery has been an integral part of Islay Island community for 200 years. This Limited Edition is in celebration of Laphroaig's 200th anniversary. With the scent of grapefruit and fresh mint on the nose, a touch of water releases salted caramel notes and its signature Islay peaty smoke underlying sweet orchard fruit and wet tobacco. It has a pleasant prolonged finish, a certain gem to savour.

Talisker Skye Single Malt 45.8% Scotland 26

Talisker "Skye" a new addition to the range of single Malt Whisky, the only single malt made on the Isle of Skye, one of the most remote, rugged, yet beautiful landscapes in Scotland. This expression brings with it a more well-rounded and sweet flavour profile packed with fresh citrus, sweet smoke, peppery spice and traditional Talisker maritime notes. It's matured in a combination of refill and toasted American oak casks, with a slightly higher proportion of toasted casks.
